

Dear Abby,

Thank you so much for spending time with my group. Your story was inspiring, your courage is remarkable. Many of the members of my team commented that they feel stronger from listening to your message.

Thank you for sharing your musical talent as well. The words of those songs take on a whole new meaning now that you've shared your story.

Once again, thank you for the message of hope and inspiration!

A large, faint, light gray graphic in the background depicts a house with a magnifying glass over it, mirroring the logo. The house is a simple outline with a gabled roof and a window with four panes. The magnifying glass handle extends from the top right towards the house.
